Paris Writers Workshop returns!

Join us on 31 May for an inspiring week in the City of Light with a dynamic community of writers and literary agents to learn, to write, to network, to energize your literary goals, and to have fun!

The Paris Writers Workshop, founded in 1989, is the oldest writers workshop in Europe. This year, we offer six masterclasses led by renowned authors, each a specialist in her or his field. The workshop will be held at the Paris College of Art, near the Arc de Triomphe and the Champs-Élysées.

Masterclass package includes:

- Daily small group masterclasses in your selected genre
- Individual meeting with your faculty instructor
- Inspirational and practical guidance for your work in progress
- Panel discussions focused on tools of writing and paths to publishing
- Agent consultations (additional fee)
- Student/teacher readings, social gatherings, and more

Dates: 31 May - 5 June 2026

Place: Paris College of Art – 241 Boulevard Pereire, 75017 Paris
